Public assemblies, demonstrations and rallies

Groups and individuals do not require permission from City of Melbourne to conduct a demonstration, rally, protest or other form of public assembly.

However, we are seeking information about your activity to ensure any affects to parks, public places, streets and footpaths are planned for and that affected businesses and services are notified.

Tell us about your public assembly, demonstration or rally by submitting the form below.

Prior to notifying City of Melbourne, we encourage you to contact Victoria Police for advice and to discuss potential police resourcing.

If your activity takes place in or passes through the following privately managed public spaces, we encourage you to notify them directly and discuss any requirements their venue may have:

- Parliament House: security.team@parliament.vic.gov.au
- The Old Treasury Building: info@oldtreasurybuilding.org.au
